

Dr. Jessa Cook

Doctor of Philosophy; Differentiated Instruction

Specialty Areas:

- Mentoring new school leaders and teachers in the Special Education field
- Engaging families through Special Education
- Expert in best inclusive practices including: Learning Disabilities, ADHD, EBD, Autism, Vision)
- Skilled in training of Adaptive Technology
- Leader in Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion
- Proficient in co-teaching and lesson design strategies
- Developing classroom accommodation/modifications
- Making the most of Remote/online learning
- Transition planning and Post-Secondary Study

Experience:

- Director of Special Education
- Principal/Assistant Principal
- Setting IV Superintendent
- University Faculty
- Special Education Teacher

Fun Fact about Jessa:

Jessa loves to travel, experience new cultures, and engage with schools around the world. She completed her student teaching in an International school.

Testimonials

Refreshing presentation topics and keeping content REAL

Loved the positive energy even with tough conversations

Very knowledgeable about the topics and made the presentation interactive for the audience